THE CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD!

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1851.

☞Now is the time to Subscribe!

THE DAILY TRIBUNE

Is issued every morning except Sunday, on a large sheet of fine white paper, forming eight pages of six columns each, or nearly the size of two [illegible] Country Newspapers. About six of these pages are, new every morning, the aggregate of Editorials, News and Miscellanies being greater than that of any other paper in America; and greater than [illegible] half that of other first-class Dailies in the Country, and less than one fourth [illegible] of the [illegible] in England. Two Evening Editions are issued to supply each subscriber with the latest news up to the hour which his copy must be mailed.

The Tribune is edited in chief by HORACE GREELEY, who has special charge of all matters pertaining to Politics and Legislation of our own Country.—The Foreign (Old World) Department is in charge of CHARLES A. DANA, assisted by able correspondents in London, Paris, Constantinople, &c. &c. Its California [illegible] and its City Department are in charge of BAYARD TAYLOR, assisted by an efficient corps of Reporters. No expense is or will be spared to render its news from all quarters, by Telegraph, Expresses, [illegible] as early and reliable as that of any other paper. Price $5 a year, in advance; three months $1.50.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Contains nearly all the non advertising matter of the Daily, except such as is of local interest, or has been superseded by fuller and more exact advices before the Semi-Weekly is issued. It is of the same size with the Daily, and has few advertisements. Price $3 a year, in advance, Two copies for $5, 10 copies for $20.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

Is issued every Thursday morning, and contains most of the matter of the Daily with more summary accounts of such events and proceedings as cannot be published in full. We see that no Weekly shall surpass this in any kind of interesting and faithful account of what the world is doing, whether it is Thinking and how it is Progressing.

The Tribune has just completed ten years, old and has attained an aggregate circulation of not far from fifty thousand copies—about two thirds of them on its Weekly. Every subscription is paid in advance, and the paper stops when the advance pay runs out, so that no one need hesitate to subscribe from an apprehension of being dunned hereafter, or forced to pay for it [illegible] to which the paper is sent, in ignorance that it is continued. It is furnished to those who subscribe only for $1 per annum, and in consequence of the liberal patronage received from all parts of the Union, the Publishers are enabled to offer the following

GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO CLUBS:

3 Copies for one year, ... $5 00
8 Do. for one year, ... 10 00
20 Copies forwarded to one address, ... 20 00

Subscriptions from individuals and clubs are respectfully solicited by

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The New York Tribune.—The Providence (R. I.) [illegible] says: We think no candid person will [illegible] a stronger and truer likeness of the leading American journal in the following, from the Boston Bee:—[illegible] the head and front of the Journals of New York [illegible], without reservation, place the New York Tribune. This may, perhaps, be thought a strong assertion, but we sincerely think it a true one. The Tribune is a paper that presents many sterling merits, [illegible] the least discernment can fail to discover [illegible] ... [illegible]

The [illegible] characteristics of the Tribune are [illegible] talent, integrity, power, honesty, candor, and [illegible]

[illegible] the Tribune are marked by good [illegible] strength of position, transparency, good temper [illegible] ... [illegible]

The New York Tribune [illegible] Editors and [illegible] ... —Regorsville (Tenn.) Times.

The Weekly Tribune for 1851.—Upon the merits of The Tribune, it is unnecessary to enlarge; known [illegible] the model newspaper of the world, [illegible] ... —Patriot (Penn.) Gazette.

The Tribune appears in a new and beautiful [illegible] improved quality of paper. It is now [illegible] as well as the best in every other [illegible] the New York daily papers.—Young America [illegible]

The Tribune, as at present conducted, we regard as the very best newspaper in the world. The [illegible] ... —Monticello Register and Chronicle.

The New York Tribune appeared on Friday [illegible]

[illegible] in a new dress, and its marked prosperity is a just tribute to one of the most able journals in the world. The influence and position of Mr. Greeley is well known, far and wide; but C. A. Dana and Bayard Taylor add their full quota to the value of The Tribune. Its reviews are written with signal ability, and its news department is furnished with the latest intelligence from every quarter of the globe. In the list of its correspondents are some of the ablest minds of the country; and the independence of its tone and position on the leading questions of reform now agitating the public mind, draw around it a host of supporters.—Numerous changes are continually occurring in the political world around us, but we find none in The Tribune; it is the same consistent friend of human liberty, the same ardent advocate of the protective principle, the same generous supporter of all social and political reforms, which it was at the commencement of its career. If our citizens will take a New York paper, we commend The Tribune to them as the most readable journal we meet.—Newark (N. J.) Mercury.

☞We are much obliged to The New York Tribune for an exchange. Having had several good tastes of it, we find it almost indispensable. It approximates the nearest to a universal American and Foreign News Journal of any that has fallen under our observation.—Its politics we don't like, but we do admire its saucy, laissez faire [illegible] dare-devil style of independence in probing the abuses in Government and the absurd conventionalities of society, and in not only pointing out wholesome reforms, but leading to them. It is not the [illegible] of the Tribune, by any means, that has given it its circulation and popularity on which [illegible] never sets.—Bangor (Me.) Jefferson[ian].

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

THIS invaluable remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, has attained a celebrity from its remarkable cures, never equalled by any other medicine before. Other preparations have shown themselves palliatives and sometimes effected notable cures, but none has ever so fully won the confidence of every community where it is known. After years of trial in every climate, the results have indisputably shown it to possess a mastery over this dangerous class of diseases, which could not fail to attract the attention of Physicians, Patients and the public at large.

See the statements not of obscure individuals, and from far distant places, but of men who are known and respected throughout the country.

The widely celebrated Surgeon, Doct. VALENTINE MOTT, of New York City, says:—

"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of the throat and lungs."

The Rev. JNO. D. COCHRANE, a distinguished Clergyman of the English Church, writes, to us from [illegible] Montreal, that he has been cured of a severe [illegible] attack by the Cherry Pectoral. His letter at full length, may be found in our circular, to be had of the Agent, and is worth the attention of asthmatic patients.

☞This letter is from the well known Druggist at Hillsdale, Michigan, one of the largest dealers in the State, and this case is from his own observation.

HILLSDALE, Mich., Dec. 10, 1849.

Dear Sir:—Immediately on receipt of your Cherry Pectoral, I carried a bot le to an acquaintance of mine who was thought to be near his end with quick consumption. He was then unable to rise from his bed and was extremely feeble. His friends believed he must soon die, unless relief could be obtained for him, and I induced them to give your excellent medicine a trial. I immediately left town for three weeks, and you may judge of my surprise on my return, to meet him in the street on my way home from the cars, and find he had entirely recovered. Four weeks from the day he commenced taking your medicine, he was at work at his arduous trade of a blacksmith.

There are other cases within my knowledge, where the Cherry Pectoral has been singular successful, but none so marked as this.

Very truly yours, G. W. UNDERWOOD.

Prepared and sold by JAMES C. AYER, Practical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold by the Agents in the following places: Bangor, LADD & INGRAHAM, GEORGE W. EMERSON, A. P. GUILD; [illegible] W. HOLDEN, Bucksport; [illegible] Sargent & Co., Belfast, Wm. O. Poor; Ellsworth, H. Nourse, and by the Druggists generally throughout the country.

SECURED AGAINST GUNPOWDER

Warranted not to Injure Books or Papers by Dampness.

THESE are the only Safes (WILDER'S PATENT) that have, in every instance, preserved their contents when exposed in large fires, like the burning of the Tribune printing office in New York city, and many others, too numerous to mention.

BANGOR, Oct. 24, 1850.

John E. Wilder, Esq.—

Dear Sir—The Safe I purchased of you was exposed to a great degree of heat at the burning of the Telegraph Office in this city. It was in the fire six hours; the books and papers were uninjured, and the damage to the Safe very slight, although it fell from the second story to the basement of the building. The little repairs necessary to the Safe have been made, and we shall proceed to return it. It is still as good as new.

Respectfully yours, JAS. EU[illegible] Y.

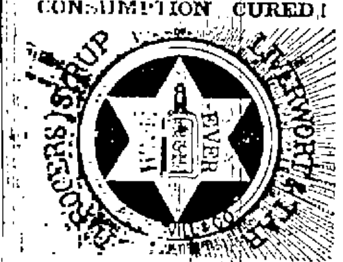
CONSUMPTION CURED!



ROGERS'S SYRUP OF LIVERWORT, TAR AND

CANCHALAGUA;

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and all other Lung Complaints tending to CONSUMPTION.

NO OPIUM.

This syrup contains no Opium, Calomel, or any mineral whatever, but is composed entirely of those Roots, Herbs and vegetable substances which have a specific influence on the Lungs and their connected organs. Its immediate effects to allay all irritation, and quickly remove the phlegm and other morbid secretions from the Throat and Air Passages, thus relieving the Cough, by subduing the inflammation and other causes [illegible] ... a healthy tone to the Lungs themselves, thereby enabling them more thoroughly to remove from the blood those impurities and diseased particles, which, if retained, do so much mischief to the system, and lay the foundation for incurable CONSUMPTION.—It also exerts a decided action upon the skin, and assists nature in expelling, through the Exhalants much of that morbid matter which would otherwise be thrown back upon the Lungs, thus relieving them of a part of their work, and rendering the system pure and healthy. When tubercles are forming, it checks their development and further progress of ulceration has taken place, it assists the Lungs in throwing off the corrupted matter, soothes the irritation, heals the ulcerated cavities, and restores them again to healthy action. This Medicine, therefore is not a palliative, merely, which only mollifies for the time being, but is a thorough curative, as it strikes at the very root of the disease, and by removing it, removes at once all its remote and attendant consequences. This is the distinguishing characteristic—a property possessed, in equal power, by no other medicine of like nature now before the public.

CIRCULARS, &c.

As no ordinary sized advertisement can fully explain the nature and merits of this article, the Proprietors have published a new Circular, giving the history of this Medicine, its description, nature, &c. of its principal ingredients, the effect they are designed to have upon the Lungs and Liver, and a copious reference to the persons who have been cured, by it—giving their names and residences, even to the street and the number.—Those who are troubled with a Cough, or whose Lungs are in the least affected, are earnestly desired to call upon the Agents named below and procure one of these Pamphlets. Those who can be had gratis, and will well repay a perusal. The "Hints on Health," and "About taking Cold," may be worth to yourself and family, in the shape of Doctor's Bills saved, besides being the means of prolonging many a valuable life.

Hundreds of Dollars,

WARRANTY.

[illegible] in our confidence in its virtues, that we are willing to warrant this Medicine in every case of recent Cold, (when used according to the Directions on page 7th of the pamphlet, inside the wrapper of each bottle,) and where the person is not satisfied that he is deriving benefit from it, by returning the bottle within twenty-four hours time,

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

No. 22 State Street, Boston.

IN 1840 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents, Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of '37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office, where-[illegible] Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier; he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents; and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of verbally explaining their inventions, and of consulting in respect to them, matters, in general, of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen years practice, an extensive collection of rare works, decisions, &c. on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1840.—During the time I occupied the Office, of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none, who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring Inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

The Lost Child on the Prairie.

BY MARY IRVING.

(Concluded.)

When she was carried to the city, the home of her grand-parents, her tottering steps were often arrested in the streets by strangers, who pressed forward to exclaim involuntarily, 'What a beautiful child!' 'An angel!' 'She's not for earth, long, sure!'

This last foreboding seemed to grow into a presentiment in the mind of the grandfather.—In vain did the laughing eyes of little Ellen look into his, mocking all his fears. In vain did he see that she was springing up as healthy and hardy as a wild rose or a prairie chicken; he pressed back her curls always anxiously, and looked intently into her face, often pressing her in his rough arms, as though he feared that some unseen hand would snatch her away even then.

'Little pet! take care of her! don't let anything come to her, John!' was his last parting charge, as he kissed her on both rosy cheeks and lifted her carefully into the wagon after her parents.

'Never you fear, father; you'll see how she shall spring up in the prairie grass!'

'Well, well: God knows!' replied the grandfather, drawing his left sleeve across his eyes. 'Good bye, and bless you all!'

Two evenings previous to the one of our stay at the log tavern, John Waring went out to his barn, to secure his cattle for the night, and go through that indescribable routine of duties which the farmer comprises under the convenient name of 'chores.' Little Ellen pleaded to go over with him. She had been building cobhouses before the hearth till a peony flush bloomed on one her little cheek, and then, tired of her play, she had been toddling around in the wake of her busy mamma's footsteps, clinging restlessly to her dress.

'Stay by papa, Ellie, pet!' said the mother, as she tied the little blue hood under her chin, and pinned a warm white blanket over the bare, dimpling shoulders. 'Ellie go with papa!' laughed the little fairy, dancing gleefully under her mother's hands. 'Come, Ellie,' called her papa, reaching out his hand as he fastened the last button of his working frock. She sprang to him, and swung her little self out of the door by his strong fore-finger. The barn was just across the road from the house. Skipping up the platform, through the unfolding leaves of the great barn-door, she clapped her baby-hands to the scampering chickens, shouted to the echoes, climbed up to peep through the rails at the red calf, and scrambled down in terror of the cow's nervously shaking her horns. At last, she trotted away, quite demurely, in pursuit of hen's nests, tossing and tumbling on the new made hay, caroling like a merry barn swallow all the while. The father was in and out, here and there, occupied with his varying business.

The sun went down, and the shadows of the long, dimly-lighted rafters began to deepen and blacken. With half a sigh of weariness, the little one rolled off the soft hay-mow.

'Come in house, papa, Ellie, tired!' she besought, looking up coaxingly into his face.

'Is Ellie tired? Ellie may go to mamma, then.' He stooped to kiss her cheek, swung back the door, opened the gate, and saw her toddle through it, and turned again to his unfinished work.

Half an hour passed, and he walked, whistling carelessly, toward the house, the duties and the toils of the day all over. His wife turned hastily toward him, as he sat down the brimming milk pail upon the well-scoured pine table—

'What have you done with Ellie? It's late for her to be out.'

'Ellen! why, I sent her in half an hour ago!' he exclaimed, startled.

'You sent her in? She has not been here! I have not seen her!' returned the mother—and flinging open the door, she called, quickly, 'Ellen!'

The sound rang shrill over the prairie, and echoed loudly and lingeringly from the blank walls of the barn; but no Ellen's voice gave answer. The mother clasped her hands, and a quiver of agony trembled on her compressed lips.

'Don't be frightened, Mary—she's strayed a bit down the path, it's likely! I'll bring her in a minute or two.'

John Waring sprang over the steps as he spoke, and rushed out of her sight, around the corner of the barn.

'Ellen! Ellie, pet! Ellie, dear!' he called and called again, and he listened for an answer until his ears ached and his brain reeled with the utter stillness. Then he plunged into the long, wild prairie grass, trampling down the purple and golden flowers like weeds.

'Where is she? where is she?' breathed the mother, with a suppressed shriek, as her husband burst open the door again, in the gathering night.

'Mary,' he uttered, in a tone of agony, 'she is not to be found! Give me the bridle, quick! I must go for help before it grows too late.—Oh, God! there is no moon to-night! Mary, dear Mary!' he added, catching one look of her anguish frozen face, 'we shall find her yet! God will keep her—don't lose heart!'

'Oh, John! she is our only one!! God could not take her away!' whispered the mother, huskily. A quick, sympathising glance was all her husband's reply, as he opened the door and rushed forth.

Mary Waring listened till the last echo of his horse's hoof beats had died away on the still prairie, and there was only the beating of her own heart to break the strange heavy silence. She still stood in the doorway, heedless of the cold, damp night-breeze that played among her locks. Her hands were clasped tremulously, in that attitude, half of hope, half of hopelessness, which sculptors have so often striven to petrify. There seemed scarcely a ripple of breath to flow from her parted lips, and her eyes were intently piercing the darkness to where a lone star, the evening star, had arisen, red in the cloud-mists of the horizon. Starting with a quick sob, from her reverie, she called with a half despairing cry—

'Ellie! Ellie! my child!'

She listened. The echo muttered back her call confusedly, and died away in silence.

'Ellie, darling, come to mamma!' she called, more gently, as though fearing to have frightened her little one by the former wild cry; but all was unheeded [illegible]

She took two wavering steps from the door; then a sudden crackling of the fire-log called her back, and aroused her to a second thought.

'No, I must not go out!' she exclaimed, throwing herself down upon the hearth. 'I could not trace the dear creature where he has failed, and I must, even wait! Oh, God! give me patience and strength!'

That prayer never was raised in vain! Mary Waring grew calmer as she sat, with her head buried in her apron, motionless as a statue, save the convulsive quivering of her lips, and sleep [illegible]

Concluded to-morrow.

FRIDAY, APRIL 18, 1851.

Presentation of Hon. Luther Severance, of Maine, to the Polynesian Court at the Sandwich Islands.

The Polynesian of Dec 8th, gives an account of an audience of His Polynesian Majesty on the 7th of December to receive Hon. Luther Severance, United States Commissioner, and family, who have recently arrived in that kingdom. He was presented by the Minister of Foreign Relations. After the introduction, Mr. Severance addressed His Majesty as follows:

ADDRESS TO THE KING.—I have had the honor of presenting to your Majesty my credentials from the President of the United States, as Commissioner at these Islands. The distinguished man by whom I was thus honored, is no longer among the living. Cut off in the midst of his useful career, a nation has mourned that loss. It was his ardent desire that the most friendly relations might be preserved with your government, and that, maintaining your independence, your people may be prosperous and happy. His constitutional successor now fills his place. The high character of the present chief magistrate, and that of his selected advisers, gives me full assurance that they in common with the American people, have the same friendly regard for you and your subjects. They have seen you, within the lifetime of many now living, and in a great measure through the agency of missionaries of the Cross, emerge from that state of barbarism through which the most enlightened nations have passed, and attain a degree of civilization which with us of European origin has been the slow growth of many centuries.

Though it will be my especial duty to look after the interests of the United States in these Islands, I shall esteem myself fortunate if I can contribute in any degree to the permanent independence of your government, and the vigorous prosperity of your people.

From your limited domains and more limited numbers, your Islands being accessible on all sides to the fleets and armies of all the world, your strength, you are well aware, must lie not so much in your arms as in the moral power which is obtained by a wise policy and a strict regard for justice; a power to command the sympathies of the civilized world, a power every day growing more potent in the affairs of even the most extensive and warlike nations, and, I trust, destined to be more enduring and more controlling than the passion for conquest which has so long and so often drenched the teeming earth with the blood of her children.

The occupation of the Pacific coast of the American continent by our Republic, will necessarily induce a more intimate connection with your islands, and a commercial exchange of productions, which it is hoped may be beneficial to both. This has been contemplated in the late treaty negotiated at Washington, and which I am glad to hear, has been ratified by you. In my intercourse with your government, I shall endeavor to observe the letter and conform to the spirit of that treaty, ready at any time to adopt any new suggestions and make any new arrangements which may be acceptable to the government of the United States, and advantageous to both countries; not, however, seeking any advantage over other nations, than such as may result from free, fair and open competition in the world-wide field of commercial enterprise. So far as this enterprise and intercourse may concern your islands, it is my sincere hope that your people may participate largely in their benefits; and at the same time, by judicious legislation, avoid as much as possible the evils which are liable to flow therefrom. In doing this you will command the sympathy of good men everywhere, and deserve the concurrence and aid of all who may visit your shores.

Your recent change of policy in allowing foreign residents to obtain titles to lands is regarded with much satisfaction by many friends of your government, and a gratifying evidence that you imbibe the progressive spirit of the age, and comprehend the effect the change must have in developing the resources and increasing the productive industry of these islands.

The policy of prohibiting any but subjects from holding real estate is much older than the written history of Polynesia. It has long prevailed in Europe—having its origin in times when foreigner and enemy were regarded as almost synonymous terms. The exclusions there has not been confined to foreigners, but extended also to native born subjects of a religious faith obnoxious to the ruling powers. As to foreigners, it has existed in some of the States of the American Union, but in both continents is giving way to more liberal legislation. Nowhere has the change operated injuriously, and with proper precautions against individual monopoly of large tracts, which I know not but you have already taken, it cannot fail to be beneficial here, bringing hither enterprising men, who, by their improvement of your now vacant lands, will find their interest in the independence and prosperity of your Kingdom identified with yours and that of your people.

To which address his Majesty was pleased to reply as follows:

[Translation.]

Mr. Severance, I am glad to see you and your family in my Kingdom, and I am gratified with the assurances, repeated by you, of the deep interest taken by the government and citizens of the United States in its civilization and prosperity. I believe them to be quite sincere; they have always viewed with great indulgence the acts of my government, making allowance for the difficulties of my position, and not expecting a perfection which States older and more civilized, have not even now attained. My past experience, therefore, authorizes me to expect nothing but good from the United States, and to count upon them, under all circumstances, as one of my best friends.

I take this opportunity to deplore the death of, and to profess my profound respect for the memory of the late President of the United States, who accredited you to my government, and I desire you to assure the present President that nothing on my part shall be wanting so far as my means extend, to reciprocate in every good and kind office.

In regard to the Missionaries from the United States, who arrived in my islands, in 1823, and those who have came afterwards, I expressed my opinion to the United States Consul, concerning them, on the 28th of October 1839.—The further experience of every year has confirmed me in that opinion.

I thank you for your offer to contribute to the permanent independence of my government, and if a necessity should arise, from the subversive attempts of reckless and lawless adventurers (of which several warnings have been given to my government,) I shall count upon you and your government, and upon other friendly governments for what support may be required. Having neither fleets nor armies, my government, unless so supported, must yield to force, if the civilized nations of the world respecting my rights and their own interests, present and prospective,—should not concur in preventing its application to my peaceful and unresisting Kingdom.

The extension of the U. S. Government to Oregon and California, the colonization of Vancouver's Islands, the growing wants of Sitka and Kamschatka, the increased intercourse with Hong Kong, Manilla, Sydney, Auckland, Valparaiso,—Callao, Papeite and Van Dieman's Land, and the prospects of the establishment of a Trans Pacific line of steamers, all warrant the belief that my islands are destined to become rapidly of great commercial and political importance.

It has been my endeavor to conform my policy and my laws to the lights and wants of the age; foreigners are allowed to hold land in fee simple, and thus industry is encouraged by all the means in my power.

I bid you and your family a very sincere and cordial welcome to my Kingdom.

Mr. Severance then addressed His Majesty, and presented him a letter written in Kamschatka, in 1812, addressed to Kamehameha, King of all the Sandwich Islands, but which had remained with the seal unbroken until this time, in the possession of a sea captain in the U. States. The remarks of Mr. Severance on presenting this letter we have not room to publish to-day.

Mrs. and Miss Severance and Master Severance were presented by the Minister of Foreign Relations.

☞ Professor John P. Norton, of Yale College, has been carrying on a series of analysis to ascertain the value, as a manure, of the ash of anthracite and bituminous coal, and has arrived at the conclusion that in every 100 lbs. of the ash of these coals there are from 4 to 8 pounds of valuable inorganic material of a nature suitable for adding to any soil requiring manures. In every ton of coal ash there is wasted, there is thrown away, from 100 to 150 pounds of valuable materials, more valuable by far than an equal bulk of our ordinary manures, which may be applied with advantage as a top dressing on grass land, or as mixed in a compost. The following are the constituents of 100 pounds of ash: Insoluble in acids 88.66, soluble silica .09, alumina 3.35, iron 4.03, lime 2.11, magnesia .19, soda .22, potash .16, phosphoric acid .20, sulphuric acid .86, chlorine .09.

☞ The Newark Mercury states that Daniel McCurdy of that city, has taken out a patent for the manufacture of India rubber. It is claimed that by this new process, all metallic combinations in the preparation of rubber are dispensed with, while yet the entire strength and ductility of the gum is retained, and the fabric, unlike that made by any other known process or previous invention, effectually resists the changing effects of constant exposure to the air and weather; being in fact almost indestructible.

☞ The agricultural prospects in Ohio are very cheering on the opening of spring. The season is three weeks ahead of last year and the prices of produce are higher, notwithstanding the large crops of the last season and the fine prospects of the present season. The Cincinnati Gazette says that the Railroads in the interior are producing already a decided effect on the price of produce. Whatever the Railroads save in cheapening freight, goes to the farmer. He is the greatest of all gainers by these improvements.

Connecticut.

The New Haven Palladium (whig) figures up a Whig majority of only one in the House and three in the Senate. This is less than the majority claimed by the Courant. The New Haven Register (dem.) thinks that the House is as likely to be democratic as whig—that neither party will have a working majority—and that no United States Senator can be elected at the coming session. The Legislature meets in May.

COURT COURIER.

The Clerk yesterday received from the Court an order to make the following entries heretofore argued on law before them in this county:

Samuel D. Dakin vs. John Goddard. Pl'ff Nonsuit. CUTTING for pl'ff. PETERS for deft.

SHIP BUILDING IN ROCKLAND. We learn from the Gazette that the enterprising builders in its vicinity are making extensive preparations for the coming season. Several clipper ships are to be built, one of them, well on to 2000 tons.

☞ It is stated in the London Globe that the admiralty have resolved to send a powerful steamer into Barrow's Straits, this summer, in order to communicate with Capt. Austin, and bring back intelligence of the operations of the squadron in search of Sir John Franklin.

Melancholy Occurrence.

We learn that at Palmyra on the 31st ult., the daughter of Mr. Oliver C. Baker, aged 17 years while carrying a brand of fire to a school house, her clothes accidentally took fire and which she was unable to extinguish, and by which she was literally roasted. She lived in great suffering for about forty hours, when she expired.

☞ The people of Georgia are expected to send delegates from every county in the state, to meet in convention at the town of Marietta, on the 8th of July next, to devise some practical common school system, and the means of carrying it into effect.

The Siecle is about to publish a romance and tales by the Emperor Napoleon, written when a youth, which are engaged to be perfectly authentic, and to be accompanied by proofs of their genuineness.

The Galena Advertiser states that the exports of Lead from that place the present season will amount to two millions of dollars. The miners are all doing well.

☞ There are, at the present time 103 Clergymen of different denominations who live in the city of Boston.

☞ An addition is expected to the Royal family in the month of May.

☞ The Calais Journal, for this week, appeared upon a small sheet containing only its legal advertisements and the following brief and touching editorial, and which explains the sad reason for the lack of a regular paper:

Since the last issue of this paper, the publisher has been called upon to discharge the last offices of kindness and love which the sufferings and death-bed of a beloved wife required.

Catherine, wife of William R. Snow, departed this life, this, 10th day of April, 1851, aged 25 years, leaving two children, one a lovely babe a week old, the other a little girl, four years old.

The home which owed so much of its attraction and happiness to the christian virtues of the deceased, has by this Providential affliction been made desolate. All the gloom which is created by intense suffering and the last frantic adieus between the deceased and her loved ones—all the hopes which the dying christian can have and impart, to weeping friends—all that faith in the promises of christianity, which is inspired by the resignation and patience of one longing to exchange earthly suffering for eternal rest—all that moral beauty which illumes the dying hour of the young, virtuous, lovely wife and mother, yielding up the nestlings of her bosom, the partner of her early love, and the fond playmates of her youth—all combined to impress the witnesses of this most gloomy scene.

Out of this deep darkness may there spring a light which shall be a guide to all those whom the deceased has left to mourn her early death.

THE HALIFAX AND QUEBEC RAILWAY.

The important Despatches relative to this Railway, arising out of the recent negotiations of the Hon. Mr. Howe with the Imperial Government, were submitted to both branches of the Legislature on Tuesday last.

On Thursday, Mr. Gray laid on the table of the House a series of resolutions with reference to these Despatches, and gave notice that he should move their consideration at an early day.

The first of these resolutions refers to Earl Grey's despatch to Lord Elgin, and recites some of its most striking passages; it then goes on to say, the House learns, with painful feelings of disappointment, that in a work now admitted to be of such great importance to the British Empire, Her Majesty's Government is not prepared to contribute any portion of the funds necessary for its construction; and as a condition precedent to the Imperial guarantee, requires these colonies to pledge their whole available revenues to build the same at their own expense.

The second resolution states, that while the House will adhere with strict fidelity to the pledge given in the joint address of both branches of the Legislature in 1849, offering the ungranted lands to the extent of ten miles on each side of the proposed line from Halifax to Quebec, and the payment of £20,000 per annum for twenty years—it desires distinctly to state, that the refusal of Her Majesty's Government to give the Imperial guarantee for that line, has turned the attention of the people of New Brunswick to the accomplishment of undertakings, which it will be in their power to carry out; and that in accordance with the almost unanimous wish of the people of this Province, the House has pledged its faith and credit upon Debentures to the extent of £800,000 sterling, to aid in the construction of the European and North American Railway, and the St. Andrews and Quebec Railway, and cannot now adopt the plan proposed in the Despatches, and is not prepared to pledge the Provincial credit any further.

The third resolution expresses unqualified disapprobation of any scheme for introducing convict labor in this colony.

The fourth states the opinion of the House, that urgent application should be made to Her Majesty's Government for the immediate grant of the Royal assent to the Railway Facility Bills, and for the Imperial guarantee of the interest on the Debentures to be issued thereunder, upon which the House will make such arrangements for payment of principal and interest as will meet the views of Her Majesty's Government.

The fifth resolution requests the Legislative Council to join in the address to the Throne, embodying the substance of these resolutions.

FREDERICTON, April 5, 3 P. M.

The House has passed unanimously, a resolution refusing Earl Grey's proposition, and renewing their adherence to our plan.—St. John Courier.

Treasury Circular.

WASHINGTON, April 12.

The special notice of the Treasury Department having been called to the subject of fees for weighing and guaging, or measuring merchandize entered at the custom house, a circular of instruction to Collectors will be issued to-day. They are directed that in cases in which the entry does not contain the weight, quantity, or measure of goods, it is to be ascertained at the expense of the owner, agent or assignee, but in all other cases it is to be borne by the United States. It must, however, evidently appear when the necessary information is given in the invoice that the items are not hypothetical or vague, but stands in good faith; and if it should be subsequently ascertained that the difference between the amount stated in the invoice and the real quantity is so great as to raise a reasonable presumption of intentional fraud, then all the expenses mentioned must be defrayed by the owners in all cases.—Where the parties have been subjected to the payment of expenses of the kind mentioned, since the passage of the tariff act of 1820, contrary to the principles now laid down, the same are to be refunded, and Collectors are instructed to issue upon application, the usual certificate and transmit to the Department.

FIRE. On Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock, a fire broke out in a small wooden building on Broad street, owned by J. Ellsworth, and occupied by an Irish family, and immediately communicated to another building adjoining, owned by W. T. & O. Moses, and occupied by a colored family, both of which were consumed. Total loss, from $500 to $800. No insurance except $150 to J. Ellsworth, by the Maine Mutual Co., Gorham.

Mr. Moulton's Machine shop had a narrow escape, the casement of the window in the gable end having been entirely burnt out, which shows the importance of iron shutters to otherwise fire proof buildings. The roof of Mr. Jackson's blacksmith shop was several times on fire.—Bath Tribune.

WM. PENN. The stature of the venerable patriarch of the commonwealth was raised yesterday in the nitche which it is intended to occupy in the new iron building at the corner of Dock and Third streets. It is very properly cast of iron, one of the principal mineral resources of the State which Penn was so instrumental in founding. It is hollow, and weighs 624 lbs.—Phil. Ledger of Friday.

PROSPECT OF CITIES WITHOUT NOISE. An omnibus, we are assured, has been running in Philadelphia for a year or more, with tires on its wheels made of gutta percha; and those best acquainted with its properties believe that in two years it will be adopted universally in this city for public vehicles. If so, it will at least save our ears much noise.—New York Express.

A certain author describes true philosophy to be this, viz: to enrich the mind and purify the heart; to keep the tongue still and the arm active; to eat slowly and sleep quickly—this is philosophy.

"TAKE TIME BY THE FORE-LOCK."—Many others besides old Father Time have only left themselves fore locks to be taken, through their own carelessness in not adopting sure remedies for baldness. When the disease which causes loss of hair begins to manifest itself, try the Hyperion Fluid, invented and sold by William Bogle, 227 Washington Street, Boston. As a preventive or cure of baldness it has no equal.

Soon after the introduction of the herb Canchalagua into this country, it was found that as an anti-scorbutic, febrifuge, and tonic, it was far superior to the best Brazilian Sarsaparilla. The Storm—Minot's Ledge Light House Swept Away and two Assistant Keepers drowned—Deer Island Sea Wall demolished—Great Disasters among the Shipping—Seven vessels gone ashore, &c.

BOSTON, April 17—6 P. M.

The lighthouse on Minot's Ledge was swept away last night during the storm. Two assistant keepers, Jos. Wilson and Jos. Antonie, drowned. Mr. Bennett, the keeper was not in the lighthouse at the time. Underwriters will immediately have a lighthouse anchored outside Minot's Ledge.

The whole sea wall at Deer Isle, built by Government a few years since was carried away and large wooden building at the end of the point blown down. The water made a complete breach over the Island. About three o'clock yesterday morning a boat was seen in the breakers on the back side of the Island—it contained eight men and it was impossible to land, the boat was undoubtedly swamped with all on board. School houses at Deer Isle were swept away, and the scholars saved with great difficulty. The shore of Deer Island is covered with spars of vessels and other wrecked stuff.

Chelsea beach for miles is strewed with logs, planks, merchandise and pieces of wrecks. Seven vessels are ashore at Marblehead.

Accounts of serious damage in towns in this vicinity are continually being received.

Steamers Ocean, Boston and John Marshall were not injured. The Admiral left for Eastport just before the gale, but is supposed to have made some harbor.

A painful rumor was current this morning about the loss of one of Train's Packet Ships on the graves, but it proved unfounded. Packet Ship Plymouth Rock and British ship Active both with a large number of passengers rode out the gale in Nantasket Roads.

The tide was nearly as high last night as yesterday, and some cellars were reached by water which had previously escaped. Shipping in harbor suffered considerably during the night.

Steamship America arrived here about 11 o'clock.

PORTLAND, April 17.

The Steamer Governor arrived at this place to-day noon, and will leave on her regular trip for Bangor to-morrow evening.

Further Foreign News by the America.

We yesterday received the following additional foreign news from Halifax.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer in Parliament after defending the abolition and alteration of the protective duties proposed with his former statements, and noticing the very unfavorable manner in which his proposal for lessening the expenses for lunatic asylums and repealing the duty on grass and clover seed had been received, this he promised not to press, he proceeded to the consideration of the window tax, resisting the proposal which had been made to set the amount of the surplus against the deficiency which would be occasioned by the repeal of that duty. He proposed to retain the abolition of the window tax on old and new house at 9d on the pound, upon dwelling houses, and 6d upon shops and houses; and for the occupants of land he would retain the exception of houses under the nominal value of £20. He next stated that he should adhere to his former proposal as to coffee and timber, and that the total amount of contemplated reductions would be £1,530,000 which would leave a permanent surplus of £356,000 for last year. As there would be a half year's window tax to receive in July there would be £568,000 to add to this, so that the whole surplus would be £924,000. He could not therefore consider it right to make any further reduction, he proposed to retain the income tax for a limited time, by which he meant such a time as should enable the financial reform to be carried out. After a brief attack upon the financial policy of the opposition, he concluded by alluding to the probable dangers which would be consequent upon the protectionists' policy, but believed that as long as the people were properly treated we were secured against those disturbances which had agitated almost all the nations of the Continent.

The Times says, the Budget is substantially the same as before. But the new form of the new house tax is certainly less objectionable than the former. The Chancellor promises to give details respecting the income tax on Monday next. The Times is of opinion that it will not be reimposed without a serious discussion. The other morning papers strongly complain of the continuance of the tax, but approve of the amended form of the house tax.

The Advertiser says, that the formation of the basis of a great anti-Papal League was concluded the 4th inst. The Federacy shall be one of the most formidable of which we have any examples excellent artical annals of the country. The formation will be inaugurated by a great gathering in the largest places, to be obtained in London. It will be more of defensive; it will assume the aggressive; it will bring its means and appliances to bear, even on Rome itself. One of its principal objects will be to demand from the Pope the allowances to English Protestants in Rome, which are so abundantly granted to Roman Catholics in this country.

A prospectus has been issued by an European and American Steam Packet Company, provisionally registered, the object of which will be to establish a line of first-class steamships to ply between Galway and some port or ports of America hereafter to be determined.

It is proposed for the purpose of carrying out the project to raise a capital of £250,000 to begin with, in 5000 shares of £50 each.

Her Majesty's government have recently requested of the Hon. Abbott Lawrence, the American Minister in London, the facts in relation to the criminal laws of the United States.

The Times says, the suppression of Messrs. Buckley & Castareign, merchants and agents, was announced yesterday, the transactions are stated to have been in coffee and other produce and that the loss will fall on Holland and Germany.

FRANCE.

The papers contain an official document of the failures of ministerial combinations which have been attempted by the President. The director of the Republican newspaper has been sentenced to fine and imprisonment for having published a second edition of his paper without making any additional deposites.

In the National Assembly, M. Eugene Sue had been elected President of the Second Committee against Duc de Broglie.

PRUSSIA.

There are still rumors of a ministerial crisis in the German question. It is stated in the ministerial organs that Austria wishes to secure a share for Barsact. Prussia opposes this plan.

AUSTRIA.

The circulation of the pamphlet entitled the Dresden Conferences are prohibited in Austria. The Minister of trade has met with unforeseen obstacles to his plan of reducing the import duties. The Emperor on the 23d ult., the anniversary of the battle of Novara, gave a grand military dinner at Triest.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Accounts from the Cape are to the 8th of February. Matters remained in this Colony much the same as at last advices. Troops were moving into the interior. The Caffre population in some districts were making common cause with the tribes to the East, whilst dissatisfaction was exhibited by the Bugas in the surrounding districts.

Public prayers were offered upon Cape Town for the removal of the affliction under which the colony was suffering.

INDIA.

Bombay dates of 3d March, and Calcutta, February 20th, had been received by overland mail at Liverpool. Lord Dalhousie had given up his intention of visiting Gholabsingh in Cashmere. Runjeets Saigh's crown of jewels sold in February did not realize very high prices. The late heavy rains in the Punjaub had excited some apprehension regarding the crops, otherwise, remarkably promising. All was quiet in the eastern portion. The Bengal and Bombay Railways were progressing favorably.

Grindal was of medium height—wore a red flannel shirt with two anchors worked in the bosom—had a cut in one of his boots near the instep—had three toes cut off near the first joint, and rings in his ears with anchors in the centre. Whoever will give information of this man shall be suitably rewarded, and $20 reward shall be paid for his apprehension and recovery of the money. HENRY DYER.

AMERICAN HOUSE,
HANOVER STREET,
BOSTON.
THE undersigned having entirely REBUILT, and ENLARGED the above extensive establishment, containing in all about three hundred and fifty rooms, would respectfully give notice that it is now ready for the reception and accommodation of the travelling community.
An extended notice of the unsurpassed conveniences of this House is deemed superfluous, as the numerous improvements (which have been made) cannot be properly given in an advertisement. Suffice it to say that no expense has been spared to render any apartment perfect.
The furniture was made expressly to order, regardless of cost, and certain portions of it, especially the Drawing rooms, will be found to be of the most beautiful and tasteful manufacture. The Dining-rooms are capacious, and the hours for meals will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of the early and late.
Every department will be conducted in an unexceptionable manner, and the Proprietor pledges himself that the American House shall be truly the Traveller's Home.

The Wonder of the Age!
BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!
The Only Genuine and Original
IS THE
NORTH AMERICAN ELECTRIC
WASHING FLUID,
For Washing in either Hard or Soft Water.
THIS is the only genuine article to be found in the world; and possesses double the power of anything ever discovered, for washing clothes at a trifling expense, doing away with washboards at once! In fact it seems to be the long sought philosopher's stone or universal solvent: seeming a magical preparation, its operation being of the most astonishing character. A common sized washing may be done with one gill of the Fluid, in less than two hours. It softens and removes the dirt, leaving the articles of the most brilliant whiteness. It being as harmless in its operations as pure water; and clothing will wear much longer than when rubbed to pieces by the common method of washing.
This Fluid is a powerful agent, to be used in all cases where soap is required, particularly for cleansing milk utensils, cleaning windows and paint, scouring floors; in short, it is beyond a precedent, as its use is universal in the washing world!
P. S.—All Colored Goods are rendered brighter by being washed in this Fluid; all Woolens are less liable to shrink, and thereby rendered much softer than in the old way of washing.
None genuine unless the Labels contain their Signature.
The above article is warranted by the Manufacturers not to contain soda, lime, camphene, burning fluid, or acids of any kind, but to be purely an alkaline preparation of the most powerful character, possessing more than double the washing power of anything ever discovered, being perfectly harmless in vapor, without possessing the caustic properties of the miserable articles which flood the market, and in many instances disgust the people to that degree that they are unwilling to try a good article, when it really is to be found. The proprietors only ask a fair trial of this article, and are perfectly willing to forfeit any amount for a single failure in any instance where it is used.

The above Boilers with a small repair would be equal to boilers half worn, or for a low steam would probably last four or five years—are very tight, and make steam easy with wood or coal.—They will be sold at a bargain with or without the smoke pipes. For further particulars inquire of JOHN TRUE, Bangor, or of the subscriber at Frankfort, where the boilers now are.
